

LOCKSMITH

This job belongs to the metal manufacturing and engineering industry.

What Tasks Do You Have To Do?

- Inspect sites and consult clients
- Assess risks.
- Design or recommend appropriate systems such as safes, strong-rooms, master key systems, alarms or door and window locks.
- Install, replace and maintain locking systems, alarms and access control systems.
- Modify locks by changing tumblers in locking mechanisms or by changing locks.
- Security systems.

How Do You Get A Trade Certificate?

The apprenticeship usually lasts for four years. At the end of your apprenticeship, provided you have successfully completed all on-the-job and off-the-job assessments, you will be issued with a Nationally recognised qualification:

CERTIFICATE III IN ENGINEERING – MECHANICAL TRADE
(MEM30805)

CLICK LINK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION